THE POST

For diuers partes of the world :
to trauaile from one notable Citie vnto an other, with a descrip-cion of the antiquitie of diuers famous Cities in Europe. The contents doe farther appeare in the next leafe folowing.

¶ Very necessary & profitable for Gentlemen, Marchants, Factors, or any other persons disposed to trauaile . The like not heretofore in English.

Published by Richard Rowlands.

Imprinted at London
by Thomas Cast, 1576.

A Briefe description of the antiquitie of diuers famous cities in Europe.

The vvayes and most vsed passages, from one notable citie to another, in Germany, Bohemia, Hungaria, Polonia, Lyttaw, and the low countries, vvith Italy Fraunce, England, Spayne, and Portingale.

The value of the coyne vsed in sundry Regions.

Also the principall Fayres and Marketts. VVith the varietie of Myles.

perused thys
small Pamflet, conteyninge a brieft collection of the most

vseall and accustomable wayes, leadinge from the one notable Citie in Europe, to an other: being vvritten vvith no smal labour and industry, and not vvithout great cause very necessarily published in the high Almaine tongue, and the like also to be seene in the French, and Italian. I thought it a thing very vncurte-ous, and vvorthy of reproofe, to vvith-hould so needefull a cōmoditie any longer from our vouldgare spech, vvhereby I vvas the more imboldened to the finishing therof, at such times as I might best attend vpon the same. I haue moreover, set downe the antiquitie of many cities vvorthy of memory, & the founders of their auncient monuments, the vvwhich I haue diligently collected out of sundry approued auethors. It resteth now that I therein most humbly craue your good vvorships furtheraunce, (as of one most vvorthy, for your great experience and trauailes, into forreyne Realmes, in the Princes vvaighty affaires, as it is not vnknowne,) so that thereby it might the better, vnder your protection, passe forth into the handes of many. And although (right vvorshipfull) this brieve collection, doth containe no pleasant history, nor delightful new deuised matter, yet doubtlesse a thinge of necessitie to be desired, especially of all suche Gentlemen as are adicted to trauaile, vvwhich hetherto haue vvanted the same: beside Marchants, or Factors, in forreyne countries, dispersed as their trafique requireth. But to be brieve, I cease further to reherse perticularly the commodities thereof. Desiring your

A Prayer.

A godly prayer, very needefull to be vsed and sayde, before any Iorney be taken in hand,

Lozde Iesus Chziste,
with thy almightie euerlasting & heauenly Father, in vnitie with the holy Ghost, very true and euerliuinge God, as thou diddest leade the childezen of Israell out of the lande of Egipt, into the lande of Promise, through the vnfrequented Wildernesse, in great safe-tie, in the daye tyme by a Cloude, and in the darke night by a Fire Pillar: Euen thou O Lozde, which dydest guyde the Wylse men from the ryfing of the Sunne vnto Bethlem, and home againe into their owne countrie by a Starre, preseruinge them from all hurtes and daungers. So likewise, O heauenly Father, I most humbly desire thee, that in this my Iourney, thou wilt be my guide and protectour, that I may accomplish and bring this my way to an ende, in health, and glad-nesse: Preserue and keepe me from all perills

A Prayer.

perills of Soule and body, so that by thy fatherly protection, I may ouer-come all perills and daungers, through Jesus Christ thyne onely welbeloued sonne our Lord and Sauour. Amen.

*Here foloweth the most vsed wayes and passages from one notable Citie in Germany, vnto another. With certain briez descriptions of the antiquities of diuers Cities.
And first of Augspurge.*

THe Citie of Augspurge, is of great antiquitie, taking the name after the Emperour Augustus, & after many conflictes, had of the Romans, began to flourish, but of late yeares it is so encreased, in all aboundance of riches, and gorgious buildinges, that the like Citie is not found in all Germany. Beside that, for marchandise it may compare with any citie in Europe, foras-much as their trafique stretcheth through all places, as well in Africa, as in Europe.

The Citie of Mentz, was of auncient tyme callid Mogountia, and lay not at the first so nigh the Riuer of Rhein, as it now doth, as plainly appeareth by a wall & foundation of the citie, yet to be sene, which standith on the side beyond the same citie : But where the citie now standith, there was at the first a Boolwerke or hold, in defence of the citie, against the Germanes, who foundid this citie, at the first it is not perfectly knowne, but doubtlesse it is a citie of great Antiquitie, and lieth very pleasantly, whereas the Riuer of Mayn doth flow down from Franckforde, and the Riuer Rehn, also descending from the highe countrie, there is no citie on the Rehn, whereas more aunciēt Monuments are found, Claudius Drusus about the tyme of the Emperour Augustus, erected in this citie, for an euerlasting memory, a huge Rocke like vnto a Towre of stone, the which there is yet to be seene, the Emperour Iulianus when hee warred with the Germans, made at this citie a bridg ouer the Rehn, and after him the Emperour Charles the great, by great labour and cost, foundid an other bridg on the Rehn, the which was 5. hundred paces long, for so broad the Rehn runnith in that place, but this bridg continued not long, for it was after consumed with fire, in the space of three hovyres, and nothing of the said bridg remayned, but the foundation being vnder the water. It is said about the yeare. 425 that Saint Albaine, for the faith of Christ was martyred in this citie.

Straszburg is a citie of great antiquitie, & hath beene called of the Romans Argentoratum, the citie was firste vnder those of Trier, and afterward subdued by the Romans, & thirdly vnder the possessiō of the French kings. Clodoneus the first christened king of Fraunce, founded therein the great Minster of our Lady, and established there also a Bishops see, and after by meanes of the sayd Bishop, is the citie wonne again to be the habitation of the Germans. In this citie is founde such a maruelous worcke, that the like is neither found in Germany, Italie, nor yet in any country, it is a very faire and high steeple, very curiously and cunningly garnished from the foundation to the top, very strange and wonderful to the beholders. It might well be added vnto the seuen vvonders of the vvorld, and make vp the eight.

The famous citie of Basell, stood in the year. 182. in the tyme of the Emperours Gratian and Valentinian, & was founded long before. The name of this citie diuers say, (though doubtfully) came of a Basiliscus, the ancient Romans haue accompted this citie for the chiefe & principall of all those other lying thereabouts. In this citie are many Printers of Bookes, for it standith chiefly on that Art. In the year. 1460. was there an vniuersitie at Basell erected.

Lis bone the chiefe citie in Portingale, vvas called of auncient time Vlixbona, this citie hath neither wales nor gates therevnto. VVithin the citie there lyeth many hills vwhereon are built castells and churches. The kinge of Portingale hathe great trafique of marchandise in this citie, vvhich exceedeth all Europe, beside for their great voiages into India. First passing out of Portingale, they sayle towarde the Southe pole, and passe the equinoctial lyue

line, and so to the Cape of Bona Sperancie, and coasting round about all Affrica, sayle againe to the North pole, and passe the equinoctial line again, & so to Calicutte in India, bringing from thence Jewells, precious Stones, & costly Spices, which afterwarde is conueyed in all other Regions in Europe.

[The page contains faint, illegible markings, possibly bleed-through from the reverse side.]

Here followeth the way to vnderstand the valuation of the coine or minte in the principall Regions, Landes, and Cities.

Entle reader, although the varietie of the Mintes in diuers countries is great, by reason of the goodnes and delay of the mettals, and also the diuersitie of places and prouin-ces, and the alteration of the successours of them, whereby it is oftentimes changed, augmented, or debated: I will therefore note down the chiefe coyne which passeth furthest thorowe the handes of the marchaunts, wherby any in buying or sellinge maye the easiest make vp hys accompte and reco-ning.

The Mynte of the citie Augspurge.
